

JURY QUICKLY PICKED
FOR VON RINTELEN TRIAL TO HOLD TRADE AFTER WAR

Four of Fifteen Bombs Plot Defendants Not in Court—Deliver First Witness.

Only an hour and half a witness was taken up in summoning a jury in United States District Court today to try the trial of Franz von Rintelen and twelve other defendants charged with conspiracy in placing bombs on steamships in the last harbor. The case is being tried before Judge Thaddeus B. Howe.

The jury is composed of Lawrence P. Farley, foreman, No. 541 East 66th Street; Charles E. Street, contractor, No. 1622 Nelson Avenue; George Tallman, Monsey, N. Y.; Theodore Taplin, salesman, No. 21 East 27th Street; Frank Zalk, dry goods, No. 34 Fifth Avenue; Ernest M. Turner, builder, No. 112 Broadway; Charles E. Lestern, real estate, No. 2566 Broadway; C. E. Kessing, manager, No. 1931 Broadway; William H. Buckley, architect, No. 121 East Tremont Avenue; R. S. Burroughs, commission merchant, No. 60 West 89th Street; Richard B. McMilligan, clerk, No. 199 Wadsworth Avenue; and Julius C. Kraus, cement dealer, No. 549 Franklin Avenue.

Four of the defendants named in the indictment were not in court. They are either in internment camps or have escaped. They are Dr. Walter B. Schaefer, Karl Schimmeil, Gustav Sternberg and Eno Bode.

The first witness was Detective Sergeant Barth of the Police Department, squad, who testified as to how he got into the good graces of one of the defendants by representing himself as a paid employee of Von von Rintelen, who had been sent over to this country by the Kaiser to finance bomb operations.

TWO SOLDIERS SENT TO CAMP
SHACKLED AS DESERTERS

One Declares He Is Engaged to Marry Sister of Food Administrator Hoover.

George E. L. Hall, 21 of Glasgow, Mo., a member of the 163rd Infantry, and Otto W. Swink of Portland, Ore., of the 182d Infantry, were sent from New York to Camp Meade today shackled as deserters. They came here on Dec. 26 and were still here when their regiment sailed for France.

Hall declares he is engaged to marry Miss Jean Hoover of Great Falls, Mont., who he said, is a niece of the Food Administrator. He was about to mail a letter to Miss Hoover when arrested.

The prisoners said they took French leave when their commanding officer denied them leave to come to New York for a day for dental treatment. After a few days of seeing the sights and some gay Broadway parties they were afraid to go back to camp. They declared they struck up an acquaintance with a wealthy western lumber man, who installed them in a luxurious suite at the Hotel Belmont and bought them new uniforms.

Hall had cards with "novels and classical dancing" engraved under his name and his companion had cards calling him a fancy skater.

TO-DAY'S AID TO BEAUTY

Hair is by far the most conspicuous thing about us and is probably the most easily damaged by bad or careless treatment. If we are very careful of hair washing, we will have virtually no hair troubles. An especially fine shampoo for this weather, one that brings out all the natural beauty of the hair, that dissolves and entirely removes all dandruff, excess oil and dirt, can easily be used at trifling expense by simply dissolving a teaspoonful of Canthix (which you can get at any druggist) in a cup of hot water. This makes a full cup of shampoo, enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head. This chemically dissolves all impurities and creates a soothing, cooling lather. Rinsing leaves the scalp spotlessly clean, soft and pliant while the hair takes on the glossy richness of natural color also a fluffiness which makes it seem much heavier than it is. After Canthix shampoo, arranging the hair is a pleasure.—Adv.

U.S. DYE MAKERS LAY PLANS
FOR VON RINTELEN TRIAL TO HOLD TRADE AFTER WAR

A convention of dye makers is to be held at the Chamber of Commerce, 20th and 42nd Streets. It was called on the suggestion of Dr. M. Jacob Mekler, 101 E. 72d Street, and Dr. W. G. McPherson, 101 E. 72d Street.

Frank H. Thompson, who operates a large dye plant at Hoboken, N. J., President, and C. D. Johnson, of the National City Bank, were elected temporary Presidents. C. D. Thompson is the Color Trade Journal editor, the office of Temporary Secretary.

Mr. Mekler says in his opening address, alluded to the present position of the dye stuffs business and held by Germany, and argued the necessity of solidifying the American trade in this line before the end of the war again through the organization of competition.

He then the association will give some undiminished extension to the common elements of the dye business, "and no, I would strongly advise against a securing a monopoly," he said, "which otherwise would not be possible."
